

The Gathering - Disciples Making Disciples Class

Sunday, January 8

Introduction:

- The purpose of making disciples - Obedience to Matthew 28:19-20 - preparing for revival
- Importance and definition of relational discipleship - not a program but an organic lifestyle
- The home - our primary disciples - spouse and children
- The necessity of reproducing disciple-makers for God's kingdom to be furthered
- The model of Jesus in making disciples - Paul/Timothy
- How to invite someone into discipleship
- The importance of commitment and consistency
- The importance of grace
- Disciple making should be a light yoke, not a heavy burden
- Not being offended at the loss or attrition in disciples - its a narrow path

What does a disciple-making opportunity look like?

- Preparing yourself first - repentance, being filled with the Spirit, asking for guidance/truth, listening
- Being sensitive to the Spirit during the meeting
- (Remember this is organic and not a program, these are simply suggestions that have been productive in making disciples for many years with many people.)
- Be willing to abandon any agenda to offer God's truth for any need in their life
- Intentionally encourage them about the progress you see in their spiritual journey
- Ask if there is any problem, worry, or questions from life that we can work through together
- Ask if they have any struggles that they want to talk about, confess, and receive forgiveness
- Confess any of your own personal struggles and teach them to pronounce Christ
- Hold them accountable to any goals that they have requested accountability
- Ask if they have any questions from their Bible study and journaling through the week
- Study a command, discuss a portion of the character traits, or review a section of the sin list
- Make a prayer of application
- Ask about any pertinent prayer requests and close with praying for and over them
