Clothe Yourself with Compassion
Col. 3:12

“Therefore”...Because You Are...

- “Therefore, as God’s chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience.” Colossians 3:12
- Our Father offers for us to be permanently changed into the person that He created us to be. He commands us to lay down our old self and step into the potential of who we can be through His great love and power.
- This is only possible because of what God has already done for us:
  1. He chose us before we chose Him!
  2. He has made us holy - free from the bondage of sin through Jesus’ blood!
  3. He dearly loves us!
- In response to God’s love, we can now trade in who we used to be in exchange for who we dream of being in God.

“Clothe Yourselves”

- “Therefore...clothe yourselves...” Colossians 3:12
- God does not force us to be like Jesus. He does not override our will and make us become the glorious potential that He purchased for each of us.
- We have a choice. “Clothe yourselves...”

- Our loving Father has done everything necessary to save us, set us free, adopt us into His family, and purchase an amazing potential to be like Jesus.
- Now it's our choice. Will we choose to receive it? Will we lay down the old self, full of selfishness and pride? Will we put on what He has purchased?
- This is not a one-time choice. It is a choice we make every day, and often multiple times a day.
- Let's begin everyday by getting on our knees, letting go of who we are in our flesh, and putting on the image of God that we were created to wear.

Clothe Yourselves with Compassion

- “Therefore, as God’s chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion...” Colossians 3:12
- “Compassion” is an English translation of two Greek words; “splagchnon” (splantk-non) and “oiktirmos” (oyk-tir-mos).
- “splagchnon” = “the spleen, intestines, bowels” (Strong’s Concordance)
- “oiktirmos” = inward affection, tender mercy, pity” (Strong’s Concordance)
- The literal translation of “compassion” is “the bowels of mercy.”

- God is telling us to lay down the pride, anger, judgment and criticism of our fleshly nature; and put on the genuine inward affection and tender mercy that comes from the core of our being that's been transformed to be like God.
- This is why receiving a life-changing and overflowing revelation of God's love is absolutely necessary for genuine Christ-followers.
